The Freedom of Choice

#1 Network is pleased to announce the introduction of it's new

Universal Alignment End Plate

for the DPM series plate makers. By removing the proprietary drive system, you will put yourself back in control of your suppliers and your cost. This new design is made to withstand years of use and is manufactured in the USA.

Now you can break the proprietary bonds that tie you to one supplier for material and allow yourself the freedom to choose a dealer that will stock product and service your company.

Reduce your bottom line by avoiding proprietary costs.

You can now receive the kind of dealer support your company deserves!

Webster's English Dictionary defines the word proprietary as:

1. Owned by a person or a group of persons
2. Possessive

*Pays for itself after just a few rolls of material.
Simple, easy installation. No tools required.*

Don't you think it's about time to take back control?
